

Library and Living Room Furniture

The "Gunlocke" Chairs

we are showing are designed to fit into any living room or library set you want to amplify by the addition of more furniture.

That is why your library and living room furniture should be carefully selected to harmonize with the old but prized pieces you already have and to add elegance to the whole. Come and see them while the line is complete.

We are distributors for Hoosier Kitchen Cabinets, Globe-Wernicke Sectional Book Cases, White Sewing Machines, Whittall's Rugs, Royal Rest Chairs, etc.

B. W. Hooker & Co., Inc.
Ambulance Service—Undertakers

GRANITEVILLE

Private W. J. Duquette Lost Tip of One Finger at Ayer Camp.

Private W. J. Duquette of Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass., had an accident while repairing an automobile at the camp recently. He lost the tip of one finger and his thumb nail was removed. Mr. Duquette writes that five of his companions who accompanied him from Washington county have been transferred to Westfield, Mass., and expect to leave for France this week.

Mrs. George Kossuth and Mrs. Robert Finnigan left this morning for Rockland, Me., to spend a few days. On their return they will be accompanied by Mrs. Kossuth's mother, who will make her home here.

Peter Finnigan commenced work this morning as clerk in E. H. Nerney's store.

Mr. and Mrs. Preston Powers and Miss Ida Suitor of Sherbrooke, P. Q., who have been visiting friends here and in Westerville, have returned to their home.

Mrs. Charles Gale has returned to her home in Littleton, N. H., having spent several days with friends in town.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Eastman and daughter have returned from Franklin, N. H., where they motored in their Chevrolet car last week. They were accompanied on their trip from Waits River by Mr. Eastman's father and mother.

Harold Hayford was picked up from the road, unconscious, Friday morning, having fallen from the back of Norris' truck, in which he was riding. He was taken to his home by Dr. G. L. T. Hayes, who found his injuries to be nothing more serious than a few bruises on his face. Parents are strongly urged to advise their children against the dangerous practice of stealing rides on automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bilodeau and Mr. and Mrs. Odile Gilbert motored to Sherbrooke, P. Q., Saturday to visit friends.

Sister Phenomena of the Order of the Holy Ghost, who recently returned to this country from England, has been visiting at the home of her father, Richard Belanger.

Mrs. C. H. Corlies leaves to-night for a week's visit in Boston with her son, William McLeod, who is aboard the U. S. S. Minnesota.

Miss Christie McLeod has returned from Lincolnton, P. Q., where she has been spending a month.

D. H. MacDonald is removing his household goods to Vershire, where he has purchased a farm. Mr. MacDonald has sold his property here to D. J. Murray.

Miss Theresa Miles spent the week-end in Montpelier.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Clark are visiting relatives in Port Henry, N. Y., this week.

Misses Alice and Lillian Pratt of Vershire were Sunday visitors in town.

EAST BARRE

A meeting of the Westerville Social Club will be held in the basement of the Baptist church Tuesday evening, Sept. 25, at 7 o'clock.

An Enemy to Corns

As corns are an enemy to human comfort so is our Corn Remedy an enemy to corns. You can get rid of the ache and you can get rid of the corns also if you but try this preparation. Because others have failed you, don't think this will. It is sure.

Price 25c

Drown's Drug Store
48 North Main Street, Barre, Vt.

TALK OF THE TOWN

New bag materials at Abbott's. William Hutchins visited friends in Northfield yesterday.

Miss Elizabeth Carson returned home last night from a visit with friends in Chelsea.

Fall and winter millinery on display at Miss L. E. Townsend's, 53 Washington street.

Mrs. Edith Willey and children of Northfield are visiting relatives in Barre and South Barre.

Dance, Eagles' hall, Montpelier, on Wednesday evening. Good music. Tickets, 50c. Ladies free.—adv.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Tilden of Hinsdale, N. H., are visiting the former's sister, Mrs. Ella Joslin of North Main street, and other relatives.

The amusement committee of the I. O. O. F., M. U., will meet at the home of Mrs. Armida Bianchi, 17 Comolli street, Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Mrs. Lavina Keith, who for several years has resided at 21 Eastern avenue, has moved to the tenement on Elm street formerly occupied by Mrs. Sarah Gurley.

Will the party who took the number of auto 1738 on the Barre-Montpelier road Monday evening, Sept. 17, please send his name to A. Anderson, box 16, Barre?—adv.

Mrs. Osgood McFarland and daughter, Mrs. Frank Whittier, who were guests of Mr. and Mrs. George McFarland for a few days, left to-day for their home in Fergus Falls, Minn.

Miss Julia Stanton arrived Saturday from Waterson, N. J., where she has been spending the summer at her home. Miss Stanton will resume her studies at Goddard seminary upon the opening of sessions to-morrow morning.

The case of State vs. Louis Romer, which was due to be started in municipal court to-day, was advanced 24 hours. The jury will be drawn to-morrow and the trial will be started Wednesday. Romer is charged with illegal keeping of liquor.

L. H. Baine of Montpelier will receive a limited number of voice pupils on Tuesday evenings from 7:15 to 9:15 o'clock at the Aldrich block, room 18, (Prof. Wheaton's studio). Appointments may be made at the studio during the above periods, or by telephoning 245-1, Montpelier.

Friends in this vicinity of Paul H. Wells will be interested to know of his success in the medical corps of the U. S. army since his enlistment in that branch in June. Mr. Wells has recently been promoted from private to first-class sergeant and placed in charge of a number of men which will comprise the sanitary detachment of the 23d U. S. engineers' corps stationed at Camp Meade, Maryland. Sergeant Wells and his men left Fort Oglethorpe, where they have been stationed since their enlistment, Tuesday, for Camp Meade to take up their new duties.

John Donnelly of Barre Town was arraigned in municipal court Saturday night on the charge of maliciously cutting two automobile tires on Clarence E. Foley's automobile truck, which was in a shed, on Sept. 11. Donnelly pleaded guilty and was fined $25, with costs of $6.55. It was alleged that Donnelly stuck a knife into the tires. The arrest was made by Deputy Sheriff H. J. Slayton. Oscar Johnson, also of Barre Town, was arrested on a similar charge, but the case against him was not pressed. The complaint was made out by the state's attorney.

O. H. Hale returned Saturday from Burlington, where he had been conducting a three days' auction sale for J. A. Bond, closing out his real estate and personal property. There was a large attendance at the sale from beginning to end and goods brought very good prices. The home was sold to Dr. W. Lyman for $3,450. The Buick auto went to W. W. Root of Charlotte for $675, the piano for $152, mahogany dressers, $68, chairs and tables averaging in price from $25 to $35 each, art squares, $65 and $75, and other goods at about the same rate. Mr. Bond and wife will soon go to California to spend the winter, hoping to regain the former's health, and they may remain there for some time. Mr. Bond stated that he was well pleased with the sale.

Among the week-end guests at Hotel Barre were the following people: G. A. Mills of Fort Edwards, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Bailey of Groton, Mr. and Mrs. James Gay of Cavendish, Mrs. W. G. Randall and Miss Sybil Randall of Troy, N. H., Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Huibut and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. French of Evanston, J. E. Clarke of Ogdensburg, J. A. Sutherland of Milwaukee, Wis., George W. Matson of Buffalo, N. Y., H. P. Prindle of Burlington, Vt., Inez Resett, Kate S. Lowe, Leola and Mrs. Leola, and Mr. P. F. Blodgett and Myrtle Wheeler of Montpelier, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Swallow of New York City, and Mr. and Mrs. D. Allen, Mrs. Levening, H. H. Dunn, Charles Sward, J. F. Sargent, H. E. Clark, N. A. Newton, A. H. Cutler and Mr. and Mrs. Stewart of Boston.

Wanted: 100 workmen to call at 48 No. Main street and let me show them how they can obtain some of that black muck soil of the upper Everglades south of Lake Okechobee, Fla., where 10 acres will grow you a crop 365 days in a year, where my eldest son will be planting Irish potatoes next week, from seed saved from our spring's crop, and a crop of corn grown on the same land this summer; where you can grow, without a bit of fertilizer, almost unbelievable yields of Irish potatoes, corn, celery, strawberries, egg-plant, cabbage, onions, or about every known northern vegetable, also the clovers, blue grass, Sudan grass, sugar cane, dasheens, chufus, rice, peanuts and all sorghum grains, soil 10 feet deep of decayed vegetation; will burn to ashes; soil irrigated and thoroughly drained; soil analysis over three per cent. nitrogen. Those wanting to learn about southern Florida worked me good and hard all last week. I'll be there this week only. Call in and see maps, soil and photo of our huge tractor now working the Everglades. F. C. Little.

Granite Cutters' International Association of America.

A regular meeting of the Barre branch of the G. C. I. A. of A. will be held in the opera house.

Una riunione regolare dell'Unione degli scalpellini (branch di Barre) avrà luogo nella opera house.

On Monday evening, Sept. 24, at 7 o'clock.

J. D. Will, Secretary.

Notice.

An adjourned meeting of Barre polishers' branch, G. C. I. A., will be held in their hall, Nichols block, on Monday, Sept. 24, from 4 to 5:30 p. m. Business, voting on delegates to A. F. of L. convention. Per order A. W. Pize, sec.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

A. P. ABBOTT CO.

What Does Our Bargain Basement Mean to You

Is it a place where you can buy lots of kinds of staple dry goods at a liberal saving? A place where you can pick up lots of kinds for the children. Let us answer for those that do not know, that it is. In this basement are odd lots of the best kinds of dry goods. Many of these bargains come from our regular stock. We have on the way all of our dolls and toys for Christmas. We want to be sure of them so have had them come early. A visit to our bargain basement this week will give you a chance to see the following.

Bargain Basement

One lot of 27-inch Navy and one lot of yard-wide Light Ground Percales at 15c per yard.

A table of Staple Ginghams in Checks and Stripes. These bought today would cost more than our price and would have to sell at 22c. Your choice of this table at only 15c per yard.

One lot of Table Oil Cloth. These are worth to-day 35c. This lot of 10 pieces at 19c per yard.

One table of Colored Wash Goods. These are this season's goods, for either children's or ladies' wear. Your choice at 15c per yard. Buy for next season and save money.

One table of 25c and 29c Figured Voiles. These are very pretty and best designs. All on one table at 17c per yard.

Several pieces of 27-in. Colored and Figured Silks that sold for $1.25 to $1.50 per yard. These for waists or trimming at 89c per yard.

Bargain Basement

Here is a bargain in Ladies' Heavy Knit Fleece Underwear in sizes 34, 36 and 38. These goods were carried over from last year and are to-day worth 75c or more each. Both Pants and Vests. Your choice of sizes at 59c each.

Odd lot of Ladies' Velvet Hats at half price and less.

Several pieces of Curtain Scrims at 12½c and 18c that are worth one-half more.

A few odd lots of Towels and Crashes at a saving.

One table of Dress and Shirt Buttons at 5c and 10c per card.

One lot of Misses' White Middy Blouses at 29c each.

Gingham Petticoats at 79c each.

A good 25c Corset Cover, trimmed with Hamburg edge, at 24c each.

Odd lots of Ladies' Muslin Underwear at less than cost of materials.

One lot of All Silk Ribbon at 10c and one lot of Fancy Ribbon at 19c per yard.

Our Showing of Coats

We are now showing one of the largest and best line of Ladies' and Misses' Coats that it has been our privilege to have at one time. You will be surprised to see the values we can give you at the prices asked for them.

The conservative lines of the garments make them valuable for more than one season, and then the values are much better than you could expect.

The Coats are made with a fullness that makes them practical, and good lines for all figures. The cloths are in qualities that will give extra service. You will be more than surprised at the values shown.

Remember, these prices we cannot guarantee later in the season, as many of the numbers have been advanced in price for future orders.

We are showing a good line of Velours and Pushes. Many of these are the Printzess and Wooltex makes, which is surely a guarantee as to style and quality. We have not the space to quote prices. Then, you need to see the line and compare the prices to realize the values we have for you.

Silk Waists

We have just received some especially good styles and values in Ladies' Silk Waists, both in the dark colors and the light colors, in Georgette Crepes and Crepe de Chines.

Our millinery department is now full of the newest things in fall millinery. We want you to see the line and feel you will be pleased with the season's new shapes. When in looking for garments just glance over our millinery line. Velvets are very strong this fall. See our line of sport hats.

The Daylight Store

TALK OF THE TOWN

See Abbott's line of coats.

W. A. Shaw of Northfield was a visitor in town yesterday.

Miss Pearl McLeay returned to her home in Boston Saturday after having spent the past few days in town with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Noonan and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Batchelder returned this morning from Groton pond, where they spent the week-end.

Ralph Rogers, who has been spending the summer at his home on Richardson street, left this morning for New Haven, Conn., where he will resume his studies in Yale university.

Alden Bailey returned this morning to St. Johnsbury, where he is employed by the American Express company, after having spent the past few days at his home on Maple avenue.

William Mahoney of Merchant street is mourning the loss of a valuable hunting hound whose untimely demise occurred a few days ago. The canine, for which Mr. Mahoney had recently refused several flattering offers, was accidentally killed a few days ago when it ran in front of a passing automobile.

At 10 o'clock last night police headquarters got word of trouble on the East Barre road, and Officer Dineen responded. When the relief party have in sight they found evidence of trouble in a carload of Washington people who were returning from this city in Roy Scott's public automobile conveyance.

Several other automobiles had gathered in the vicinity of the fracas but they were gotten under way for various destinations when the police came up to the scene of the trouble, near the watering trough half a mile beyond the city limits.

Herbert Farnham, Frank E. Clough and Fred A. Downing were arrested, the first named for intoxication and the last two for breach of the peace. Downing, the older of the two scrappers, was considerably marked up in the encounter, having blackened eyes and scratches on his face.

To-day in municipal court Farnham pleaded guilty to the charge of intoxication and was fined $5, the costs in the case being $6. Downing and Clough also pleaded guilty to the charges of breach of the peace and were fined $5 each, with costs of $6.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Lots of bargains in Abbott's basement.

Miss Mae King of Jefferson street returned last evening from Waterbury, where she spent Sunday at her home.

John Rogers of Orange street and John Jones of Beckley street, 1917 graduates of Spaulding high school, left last evening for Boston, where they will enroll in Harvard dental college.

Mario Dughi of Vine street, a 1917 graduate of Spaulding high school, left this morning for Buffalo, N. Y., where he will join his father, who has been residing there for some time.

A large number of people attended the auction sale of personal property held Saturday afternoon at the George Holden farm in Williamstown. D. A. Perry of Barre acted as auctioneer.

Alex Mortimer of Camp street, a member of the graduating class of Spaulding high school last June, left last evening for Philadelphia, where he will enroll in the University of Pennsylvania.

Word comes from Westfield, Mass., that along with many others, some of the Barre boys who are members of the 20th divisional ammunition train are now tied up in quarantine because of the measles.

Charles Gray arrived Saturday from Claremont, N. H., where he is employed by the Sullivan Machine company, to spend a few days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Gray of Murray street.

Murdo McDonald of Graniteville was arraigned in municipal court this morning on the charge of intoxication, first offense, and was fined $5 with costs, which he arranged to pay. He was arrested by Special Officer Curtis Saturday afternoon. The same officer arrested John Bessette of this city last night for intoxication, and the respondent was given 30 days and a fine of $15 and costs for a subsequent offense.

The last of a series of band concerts furnished during the past few Sundays by the Montpelier Military band, was enjoyed yesterday afternoon by a large number of people from Montpelier and Barre at Benjamin falls. A large number of people have attended the concerts during the past month. A diet for cornet and baritone by Messrs. Forsell and Dumas was one of the most appreciated numbers on the program yesterday.

NOTICE

Demonstration now going on at our Coffee Department of

Sao Paulo Coffee

Direct from the plantation to our Roaster

We are now buying all of our Coffee direct from plantations in South America, and by doing so we are now in a position to please the Coffee users that are looking for that extra fine flavor.

All Coffee sold at our store will be roasted fresh every day with a Royal Roaster.

Call at our store and try a cup of this delicious Sao Paulo Coffee.

The Smith & Cumings Co.
"GOOD THINGS TO EAT"

MONTPELIER

Deputy Marshal Lackey Chased Three Alleged Slackers in Vain.

Deputy United States Marshal G. F. Lackey spent quite a little time last week tracing men who were reported to be three slackers. They were with a show company and when he located them he found that two of them had the registration cards, while the third was over 31 years of age. The complaint came from southern Vermont. In view of the fact that the complaint was without foundation the names are not made public.

Arthur Scanlon of St. Albans is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jerome.

Mr. and Mrs. G. P. Barber were in Randolph Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Clark and Cecil Burnham, accompanied by Miss Nellie Chase, passed Sunday in Claremont, N. H., taking the trip by automobile.

Mr. and Mrs. D. K. Lillie were at their camp on Lake Champlain Sunday.

The general docket of supreme court for the October term, which convenes on the second day of the month, has been issued by Clerk L. C. Moody. It contains 159 cases, of which 13 are state cases, some of which are on the trial docket. Of the 159 cases 40 are on the trial calendar. The justices met a few days ago here and went over the opinions which they are forming to be read the opening day of court.

In probate court Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Carrie W. Fitts of Barre was appointed executrix of the estate of Homer Fitts, late of Barre, and Hiram L. Sparrow of East Montpelier was appointed administrator of the estate of Clara P. Holton, late of Calais. This morning, Thomas H. Cave, Jr., settled his account as administrator of the estate of Charles N. Benedict, late of Barre City. He also settled his account as administrator of the estate of Modest Aja, late of Barre City.

Clarence D. Wheelock of Montpelier writes that he was not arrested for breaking probation and that the charge was for not reporting to the probation officer. He writes that he mailed his report on Sept. 8, and that he has no control over the U. S. mail. Moreover, he considers that he was "arrested for nothing" in fact "I am on probation for nothing."

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Corry left Sunday afternoon for Atlantic City, N. J., where this week Mr. Corry, as the vice president of the National Bank section of the American Bankers' association, attends the annual meeting of the organization. Frank Corry, their son, a sergeant in battery of artillery, has gone back to his camp in Buffalo, N. Y.

Insurance Commissioner J. G. Brown left Sunday afternoon for Keene, N. H., on matters connected with his office.

Wilbur and Paul Corse left Sunday for Detroit, Mich., where they have employment.

WATERBURY

The local Red Cross shipped Friday a box of wool knitting to the headquarters in Boston, consisting of seven sweaters, 30 mufflers, 39 pairs of socks, 17 trench caps, four helmets and 36 pairs of wrist-lets. Because of the quarantine, this is the first box they have been able to send. The work is now expected to be pushed without interruption.

Mrs. Henry Lark and daughter, Helen, are visiting in West Lebanon.

Mrs. Betsey Grout and Miss Eliza Silvio, who have been at the home of Edward Grout, have returned to their respective homes.

Carl Gray, who has been spending the summer with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. M. V. B. Hayden, has gone to Valparaiso, Ind., to attend a wireless school.

The funeral of Mrs. William Deal was held from her late home Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. Verne L. Smith officiating. Burial was in the village cemetery. The bearers were John Deal, William Deal, Walter Deal and B. F. Atherton of this place; L. H. Atherton of Montpelier and Walter Benson of Morrisville. There were a large number present from Montpelier and other towns.

Guests at the LeBaron farm over Sunday were Major and Mrs. John Remington of Chicopee Falls, Mass., and Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Martin of Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Garden, Roy Durett, Everett Willey and Mrs. Julia Durett were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Durett Sunday, and Mr. and Mrs. Jennette of Barre were guests of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Durett.

Roy Demeritt, Henry Demeritt, Earl Morse, Maurice Eastman and A. H. Morse were at their homes from Randolph over Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Armington and son were with her parents in Moretown Sunday.

Monday Special

Six full-size packages Ohio Matches for 27c
These Matches are being sold for 6c and 7c per package and are worth that on the present market

Large package National Rolled Oats, worth 30c, our price 20c
White Cloud, a new White Floating Soap, cake. . . 5c
Cooking Apples, per peck 25c, 30c
Old Grist Mill Rye Flakes 15c
Dimock's Pure Cider Vinegar, per bottle 10c

Peaches are late this year. We shall have a large lot of Canning Peaches next week. Wait for the good ones.

The F. D. Ladd Company